Good to know ahead of Saturday's match

Hello Robyn,

ÖSK has the chance to exact quick revenge in home match. ÖSK will face Östersund, who have had nine consecutive matches end in defeat in Allsvenskan (the Swedish League). ÖSK had lost their previous match against IFK Norrköping. ÖSK has a chance at victory, as they have the additional advantage of playing on home ground where the team has had three wins. Östersund is not strong in away games and has only won one match this season against AFC Eskilstuna. The team has still not managed to score more than one goal in any of their away matches. When the teams last played each other on May 20 at Jämtkraft Arena, it ended in a 3-1 victory for ÖSK.

PREMIER LEAGUE
By: The Kvällsbladet Textrobot
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MAR 15

The home team Bournemouth and visiting Sheffield United claimed a point each with a 1-1 (0-0) draw in the Premier League fixture on Saturday. Despite the away team creating chances, the score was 0-0 at half time. It was not until the 62nd minute that the deadlock was broken. Chris Mepham got the ball off a corner and made no mistake. With a shot from inside the box he made it 1-0 for Bournemouth. 1-0 stood all the way up until the 88th minute - when Sheffield United scored the final goal of the game. With a shot from close range, Sheffield United's Billy Sharp scored, and made it 1-1.

"Our strong defense stood their ground well in what was a very tough away match. And with a strategic forward like Billy Sharp, we were able to equalise against a generally well placed Bournemouth defense," said Sheffield United coach Chris Wilder.
